Responsibility and Assumption of Risk

Ursula Medley and Peter Medley of Wandering Palette Tours act as facilitators with respect to the tour. They cannot be held responsible or liable for any failure in such services or personal injury, delay, accident, illness, loss of personal property, strikes, armed conflict, natural disaster or additional expenses incurred due to weather, disruption of advertised schedules or other causes beyond their control. The right is also reserved to accept or reject any person as a tour participant and to make changes in the itinerary whenever deemed necessary for the comfort and safety of the participants and to cancel a tour at any time. The participant agrees that Ursula Medley and Peter Medley of Wandering Palette Tours shall not be liable for any damage, loss or expense occasioned by any act or omission of any supplier providing tour or other services to any person. While every effort is extended to insure a safe, enjoyable trip, travel is not without some risk. For this reason, Ursula Medley and Peter Medley of Wandering Palette Tours, its affiliates, agents and designated outfitters cannot assume responsibility for injury to passengers, illness or loss of personal belongings. In consideration of, and as part payment for, the right to participate in such vacations and activities, the participant hereby assumes as his or her own personal risk all the hazard and dangers of vacations and all associated activities. Travel documents, as well as compliance with customs regulations, are the individual's responsibility.

I agree with all the terms and conditions as set out in this information kit.

Please note: Participants must be able to function in a workshop environment (carry and set up your own equipment) without assistance. We recommend that participants have a medical check-up, be in good health and have adequate travel, cancellation and medical insurance. On tour days, there is a considerable amount of walking and standing, so comfortable shoes are recommended.
